TOP BRASS

The brief for this striking design was '1930s glamour', which gave Cadence & Co the freedom to play with strong decorative expressions and luxury. 'Our clients love colour and were not shy about embracing a little drama in the finishes, so we gave both to the kitchen,' says Michael Kilkeary, design principal and partner. The brass-backed island with its curved, fluted form is undoubtedly the star, adding an opulent feel, while the ceiling-high marble splashback adds movement and depth and draws the eye upwards, highlighting the grandeur of the space.
